

I think that banks should not be allowed to contact people who do not wish these unwanted phone calls. We should be able to choose who we want to contact us.